Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 5-8 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's arguments as to the prior art is persuasive.

The prior art neither anticipates nor renders obvious a roll stock apparatus for gravure printing as claimed in independent claim 5, specifically wherein the combination of limitations includes a turn-table rotatably arranged against a base plate and a plurality of rolls standing obliquely in a circumferential arrangement on a roll pallet located on a turn-table and wherein a longitudinal direction of the process rolls coincides with a generatrix at a conical surface.

The prior art teaches vertically stacked rolls (US Pub 2004/0020168), inclined rolls (JP 61238640A), vertically stacked rolls for removal (JP 2002265009A and US 6,772,493), inclined rolls for removal (US Pat Pub 2004/0200692), assembly line roll transfer system (US 5,052,540), and vertically stacked items on a rotary turn-table (US 6,122,896).

As stated in the previous office action, inclined rolls at an oblique angle is well known in the art as is evidenced by the art cited. However, the combination of the turn-table limitations with the rolls is not found in the prior art.

The prior art does not teach the combination of limitations found in independent claim 5, specifically wherein the combination of limitations includes a turn-table rotatably arranged against a base plate and a plurality of rolls standing obliquely in a circumferential arrangement on a roll pallet located on a turn-table and wherein a longitudinal direction of the process rolls coincides with a generatrix at a conical surface, and no motivation is found to modify the prior to obtain the claimed invention, and furthermore, to do so would require hindsight and destroy the workability of the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
